SUMMARY

Content and AI Enablement Strategist with 11+ years across software engineering, UX design, and content design. I specialize in label taxonomy, prompt architecture, content governance, and UX writing for AI-native products. At Aampe, I architect the agentic and semantic content layer for 14+ enterprise brands; building the AI knowledge bases, prompt frameworks, and content systems that drive hyper-personalized messaging at scale.

EXPERIENCE

Content Designer & Strategist

Aampe (acquired by MoEngage) · Nov 2024 – Present

- Architected content systems, labelling taxonomy, governance frameworks, and AI enablement programs adopted across 20+ enterprise accounts — including NBA, Waymo, Blinkist, Chime, and IndiGo — driving $1.3M+ in combined contract value
- Defined taxonomy, terminology, and information architecture at the product level — designing the label systems, message component hierarchy and ontology embedded directly into Aampe's product; contributed across 13+ product sprints shaping platform direction
- Co-designed and built production AI tools for Agentic Content using LLM-assisted development, such as — aamPT (custom AI content generation assistant, LabelBuddy (semantic analysis of content), MapPT (custom GPT for content strategy), ComposerRelay (LLM-assisted structured content creation for Aampe)
- Maintained Aampe's knowledge base and produced a library of async video tutorials, customer-facing guides, and strategic frameworks accelerating enterprise onboarding and platform adoption

UX Writer

LazyPay (PayU Finance) · Oct 2021 – Nov 2024 | 3 yr 1 mo

Lead UX Writer · Jan 2023 – Nov 2024 | 1 yr 10 mo

- Led content design across LazyCard (credit card), the LazyPay app, onboarding, and regulated financial copy as sole UX writing lead
- Built the content style guide, brand voice, and component naming conventions from zero; hired and grew the content function

Senior UX Writer · Oct 2021 – Dec 2022 | 1 yr 2 mo

- Owned UX writing across core fintech surfaces — payments, lending, BNPL — partnering with design and product on accessible, conversational copy.

UX Writer

SpotDraft · Feb 2021 – Sep 2021 | 8 mo

- Sole UX writer at an AI contract management startup. Built brand voice from scratch, rewrote all contract lifecycle emails, wrote persona-specific lead-gen modal copy.
